Brindabella Christian College

For Book Week we encouraged the whole College from Preschool through to Year 12 to dress up as a Book Character. We were overwhelmed by the response and the level of excitement demonstrated by students and staff.

Chapman Primary

Chapman Primary has really enjoyed celebrating all things to do with reading during our annual Awesome August – Book Fair, Cartooning Workshops, The Great Book Swap and an exciting Special 'Dress As Your Favourite Character' Book Week Assembly – our Mr Campbell really led our 'Dorothy' characters with grace and poise!

Marist College

Our Year 11 library course students helped create several displays for the senior school library and presented a video they made (highlighting the favourite books of staff and students) to a Year 5 class. They led the class in an activity to create paper lanterns of favourite books.

Giralang Primary School

Giralang Primary students enjoyed Book Week 2015 by dressing up as their favourite book character – Our teachers did too! We held a whole school assembly to show off our costumes. Book Week was our chance to ‘light up’ our imaginations and explore our favourite stories and characters together.

Hughes Preschool

The Hughes Preschoolers celebrated Book Week 2015 by becoming published authors and illustrators. Together they wrote and illustrated two amazing stories, which were then printed into a book. They then hosted a fabulous book launch for family and friends, including a book signing and fairy bread, of course.

Rosary Primary School

Book Week entailed a Scholastic Book Fair all week. On the Friday we ALL came dressed as a character from the book we brought along for the day to share. I organized multi-age groupings (K-6) to share a previous Short-Listed Picture Book and also create fireflies attracted to the spotlight of Books Lighting Up Our World. Each fly had a book character on the jacket! We are doing a Guess the Teacher Competition and book prize next week.

Sacred Heart Primary School

Sacred Heart celebrated Book Week in style. An exhibition of the “Book Week” inspired artwork was displayed in Centre Court at Westfield Woden. It attracted a diverse audience of Sacred Heart families, staff, former students and the general public. The quality of student work ensured that the display was amazing.

St Clare of Assisi Primary School

SCA celebrated Book Week 2015 in style. We began with family reading each morning in the library, a Book Fair to promote the importance of reading, celebrity reading each recess with our wonderful teachers, the fortnight's homework based on their book week character dress up ensured maximum participation, colouring, craft, bookmarks and find a words at lunchtime, peer support led by our excellent Year 6 students based on 'Thelma the Unicorn', a literature based assembly led by our Year 3 students and it all culminated in a glorious dress up day on the Friday. We had such a busy and enriching week where we celebrated reading in all it's forms. Great work SCA!

St Gregory's Lowe Street Campus, Queanbeyan

Such an exciting week for our students! We celebrated with a book parade, shared best books, created amazing shortlisted artwork and theme displays. We became fascinated with light. Kinder and Year One students made the parts to this display and even came in their breaks to add more!
